

The Louis Prima Files

1934-1975

This discography is dedicated to Bob Pepitone, who worked so hard to prepare this. Sadly, Bob has passed away. An affectionate thank you to Bob always, and to Juliana (Mrs. P.) and daughter Tina for graciously sharing all of his memories with me.

Love Always,

Gia

FORWARD

For those of you who are curious as to why I would spend countless hours compiling this discography, I would like to make it perfectly clear that it is purely as a tribute and a dedication to Louis, and by all means a labor of love.

Louis Prima was truly a Showman's Showman. He was a pioneer of swing jazz, and has influenced many people in the entertainment field. Elvis Presley was admittedly one of them.

He has meant so much more than just entertainment to me personally. His music has been my therapy and inspiration. I could never say too many wonderful things about this man.

In 1978, I was invited by Louis' last wife, Gia Maione, for a three day visit to New Orleans to see him, though he was still in a coma, as he had been for nearly three years. Seeing my idol like that reminded me of the song "Laughing on the Outside, Crying on the Inside." But the honor of being there as the #1 Louis Prima fan was a profound and deeply moving experience.

Louis Prima has written many songs such as "Robin Hood," "A Sunday Kind of Love," "Oh Babe," "Please no Squeeza da Banana," and the all time jazz classic, "Sing, Sing, Sing," just to name a few.

It is with great delight that I share with you in this discography of every studio recording Louis ever made in his career from 1933-1975.

Louis did not want to be called Louis or Mr. Prima. He liked to be called "The Chief."

May his memory be eternal!

HAIL TO THE CHIEF!!!

Sincerely,

Bob Pepitone
