

My name is Diji Diallo. I am currently a level 4 senior jazz student at Nocca, and hope to continue my studies in music at the Berklee College of Music, and this scholarship will help bring me a step closer to that goal. I've studied and performed with Michael Pelleria, Khari Lee, Chris Severin, Donald Harrison Jr., Christian Scott, Ellis Marsalis, and Herbie Hancock throughout my years at Nocca. I am an alumni of The Roots of Music Marching Band, currently part of the Tipitina's Internship Program, and currently part of the Thelonious Monk Institute Nocca Ensemble.
